The Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary Speak Out

AND STAND BY MRS. CARRIE SWAN

The Parties Calling Themselves "Members of the Auxiliary" Are Hotly Condemned—The Attack of the Crisis and Tribune Upon Captain Palmer Pronounced the Essence of Untruth—A Vote of Thanks Tendered the Manager of the News Review.

A few days since there appeared an article in the lower region daily respecting the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association. The article in question was signed "Members of the Auxiliary," and said parties tried to convey the impression that there exists serious trouble in the ranks of the local Auxiliary, and that Mrs. Carrie Swan, the honored president of the organization, is an usurper, attempting to hold office without authority and in defiance of law, rules and regulations.

No answer was made to this nasty fling on the part of irresponsible parties, and, emboldened by this fact, another assault was made in a paper called the Weekly Tribune, published somewhere, under some auspices unknown, and signed "Members of the Auxiliary." In this same weakly sheet, an assault was made upon the manager of the News Review, under the head of "Unmasked."

The heading was indeed appropriate, as it "unmasked" all the smallness, meanness, petty viciousness, malice and hatred contained in the heart of the writer, as every assertion contained in the half column attack is an untruth, an absolute untruth, without a single redeeming feature, as can be proven by very many unimpeachable and trustworthy witnesses, and it has been denounced as false in every particular by a band of noble Christian women, members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, in a regular meeting, held on February 9, 1897, without a single dissenting vote. (Read the resolutions below.) The manager of the News Review has no hatred for the writer of the infamous article; but, from his heart, pities the poor creature, so influenced by hate and malice.

The parties signing themselves "Members of the Auxiliary" were guilty of meanness and low deceit. On January 6, 1897, Mrs. Carrie Swan was duly elected president of the auxiliary, at a regular meeting. There were 13 members present, one lady receiving one vote, a second lady four votes, and Mrs. Carrie Swan eight votes. The newly elected president declared that she had no desire to fill the office for another year, as other pressing duties forbade such action. During the next month, a petition was presented to the workers and active members of the organization, those who had stood the storm and labored earnestly in the Auxiliary for years past, asking Mrs. Carrie Swan not to resign, but, for the good of the order, to retain her office for the ensuing year, the petitioners promising to aid her in every possible manner and to take all unnecessary burdens from her shoulders. Mrs. Carrie Swan finally yielded to this numerous signed petition, put self in the background, and consented to serve for another year. Then came the vicious, unkind, unjust and untruthful attack by "Members of the Auxiliary." The real members bore the first attack quietly, not desiring publicity or newspaper notoriety. But when the second vicious attack was made, the real members agreed that forbearance had ceased to be a virtue, and recognized that the venomous assailants would go to extreme lengths, unless called down promptly and effectively. Mrs. Carrie Swan was instructed to call a special meeting for Tuesday, Feb. 9, due notice of which was given in the two daily papers. The meeting convened at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Sixteen members were present, and the following resolutions were drafted, passed and ordered printed, every member voting in favor thereof, with a solitary exception, and she refused to vote.

By the way, it has developed that ONE member of the Auxiliary has caused all this commotion in the organization. By cunning, deceit, half-told truths, fawning and cajolery, she succeeded in misleading a few others, who have now discovered the trickery and deceit practiced upon them, and are very indignant, and will have nothing to do with the mischiefmaker and trouble brewer. Following are the resolutions:

Official Action of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Respecting statements published in the Daily Crisis and Weekly Tribune, reflecting upon Mrs. Carrie E. Swan, our honored president, duly elected for the coming year, by a large majority of those in attendance. Also, respecting gross misstatements made in the Weekly Tribune respecting Mrs. Will Taylor, said misstatements being made over the signature of "Members of the Auxiliary," without the consent or sanction of this Auxiliary, and utterly in defiance of all law, parliamentary or otherwise.

WHEREAS, Said statements published in the Daily Crisis and Weekly Tribune, papers published in the city of East Liverpool, are misleading and intended to deceive the public; and,

WHEREAS, Mrs. Carrie Swan was duly elected president of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association, of East Liverpool, Ohio, on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 6, by a large majority of ladies present; and,

WHEREAS, Mrs. Carrie Swan, after being elected, declared she did not desire to serve, giving as her reason the pressure of other cares and duties, merely holding the office until the following regular meeting, Feb. 9, 1897, and,

WHEREAS, During the time intervening between the dates of Jan. 6, 1897, and Feb. 9, 1897, a petition was put in circulation among the workers of the organization, those who were in the habit of attending the meetings regularly, said petition being signed by quite a number of active members, earnestly urging Mrs. Carrie Swan to not carry out her announced intention of resigning, but, for the good of the auxiliary, to serve the ensuing year in full; and,

WHEREAS, President Carrie Swan, yielding to these solicitations, and casting self in the background, resolved, backed by the proffered help of these tried friends, to hold the office of president, to which she had been duly elected, for the term of another year, asking God's blessing upon her humble efforts; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, members of the Auxiliary, will stand by our president, Mrs. Carrie Swan, through the coming year, easing her of all burdens that we possibly can, giving her all the assistance in our power, and that we humbly, but very earnestly, ask God's blessing upon our Auxiliary, with the prayer that He may bless one and all of the members, and enable us to give more than our ordinary help to the Young Men's Christian association.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Official Action of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. of East Liverpool, O.

At a special meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association, held on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 9, at 3 o'clock, the following official action was taken:

WHEREAS, In late issues of the Daily Crisis and Weekly Tribune, papers published in East Liverpool, Captain Harry Palmer, manager of the News Review, and an honorary member of this Auxiliary, has been assailed in a very unbecoming and untruthful manner, in so far as his business associations with this Auxiliary are concerned; and

WHEREAS, The Weekly Tribune has charged the said Captain Harry Palmer with domineering over and controlling the members of this organization, by proxy, or otherwise, and has stated that Captain Harry Palmer has been outrageous in his charges for advertising done by him for this Auxiliary, and that he demanded of the Auxiliary that Doctor Tracy should be brought here under the auspices of our organization, and met with refusal on our part, and that he afterward brought Dr. Tracy here upon his own responsibility, made a failure in the move, and then demanded that the Auxiliary should pay for the rental of the opera house, as well as for a bill of advertising in the News Review, for said entertainment; and,

WHEREAS, Knowing that each and all of the above statements, published in the Crisis and Weekly Tribune, are false, and calculated to do injury to a member of our organization, and aware of the fact that the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association, by a unanimous vote, decided to bring Doctor Tracy back to East Liverpool, for the purpose of giving an entertainment under the auspices of this Auxiliary; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we utterly condemn, as a body, this shameful, unjustifiable and unbecoming attack upon Captain Harry Palmer; that we hold him in the highest esteem and bear him the greatest of good will. That we return him our warm thanks for his generosity to this Auxiliary, and assure him that he has our earnest wishes for success and prosperity, with the assurance that we, as members of the Auxiliary, will do all in our power to carry these good wishes into effect.

LADIES' AUXILIARY TO THE Y. M. C. A.,
East Liverpool, Ohio.

MRS. NETTIE WILSON, Secretary.
Referring to the charge that the manager of the News Review had made outrageous charges against the Auxiliary, for advertising the entertainment at the opera house. "Members of the Auxiliary," as they signed themselves in the down town daily and uptown weekly, asserted that the outrageous bill would never be paid. No bill had at that time been presented, nor was the bill in question presented to the Auxiliary until yesterday, when it was receipted in full, without the payment of a penny on the part of the Auxiliary, the manager of this paper having ascertained that the ladies had lost the sum of $3.62 on the entertainment, the expenses being $26, and the half receipts (Doctor Tracy sharing half and half with the Ladies' Auxiliary) reached but $22.38. The receipted bill met with hearty hand clapping by all the ladies present, and a vote of thanks was given Captain Palmer for his generosity, in common with all his other pecuniary relations with the Auxiliary.

And thus endeth all the vicious and unbecoming charges against the manager of this paper. There is no trouble in the Auxiliary, save in the minds of irresponsible "Members of the Auxiliary," and in the vivid imaginations of irresponsible newspaper editors or what-nots. All is peace, sweet peace. The light has been turned on. Selah.

LATEST—A committee appointed by the Ladies' Auxiliary to interview the managers of the Daily Crisis and Weekly Tribune, in order to have the above resolutions printed in those papers, as a retraction of the false and misleading articles they published against the Auxiliary, President Carrie Swan and honorary member Harry Palmer, interviewed Wm. B. McCord, claiming to be editor of the Crisis, and he absolutely refused to publish the resolutions, without the sum of ten cents per line was paid by the Auxiliary, amounting to $13.60, saying: "Why, ladies, you could not expect us to vindicate Captain Harry Palmer; he is a bad man, refers to our paper as the 'lower region sheet,' and we would be using a club upon our own heads to thus vindicate him."

The committee is convinced that W. B. McCord, supposed to be the editor of the Crisis, has no intention of doing right and acting justly in the premises; but, on the contrary, is influenced by the desire to do injustice to all concerned, blinded by his ill will towards Captain Harry Palmer, whom he has basely and untruthfully assailed. The News Review, as usual, published the resolutions free of charge. Comment is unnecessary. Selah. Turn on the light.

WHY KENT RESIGNED.

He Has Not the Time, and It Costs Too Much Money.

Councilman Kent when seen this morning and asked his reasons for resigning said:

"I have not time to attend to the duties of the office and it costs too much money. I have been intending to resign for five months but only waited until it would take effect within the 60 day limitation in order to save the city the expense of holding a special election. The Southside ordinance had nothing to do with it, but I will say if the 25 year franchise had come up last night for the last time, I would have resigned rather than vote against the wishes of my constituents. I will not appear in council again, even if my resignation was not accepted last night."

Mr. Horwell's only explanation for his action was that "it came too sudden."

MORE CHARITY, LESS ADVICE,
Would Be Appreciated by the Township Trustees.

"The trustees are burdened with advice which they would gladly exchange for something to benefit the poor," said one of the gentlemen today. "There are any number of people in the city who seem to believe that all we need is advice, and while they are not slow in giving us a vast deal of that, they never think of bringing around an old suit of clothes or a pair of shoes to help lift the burden on the taxpayers, and make some poor, shivering mortal happy. We appreciate substantial contributions, and are very thankful for those we have received."

MR. KENT WALKED OUT

Then His Resignation Was Presented to Council.

MR. HORWELL REFUSED TO VOTE

And the Street Railway Franchise Went Over For Two Weeks—A Change In the Curfew Ordinance—Some Talk About Light—What Council Did.

The meeting of council held last evening was an unusually short session, but several sensations were sprung before it closed.

When President Purinton called the body to order, every member but Mr. Ashbaugh was in his place. The clerk read the minutes, and Mr. Peake took the floor.

"I would like to know if that light in Sunnyside was changed," he said. "If it was the light committee never met to do anything with it. Mr. Ashbaugh was away from the city, and I was not present. I object to the minutes."

Mr. Marshall said he did not think this was the proper time to discuss the matter, and President Purinton explained that the objection was made because only one member of the light committee signed the report. The minutes were changed to read "Mr. Stewart of the light committee," and council proceeded to business.

The curfew ordinance was read, and Mr. Stewart offered as an amendment that for the first offense the children be taken to their homes by the officers instead of to the office of the mayor or the city jail. Mr. Marshall moved the ordinance be referred to the ordinance committee in order that a satisfactory arrangement could be had before the next meeting. This was carried, and all members who have amendments to offer were ordered to submit them to the committee within a week. Ordinances fixing grade lines on Riverview avenue and Oak street were read for the third time and passed.

The street railway ordinance came next, and Mr. Peake moved it be laid over for two weeks. President Purinton instructed the clerk to read the title of the ordinance. Mr. Marshall said: "In regard to a 25 year franchise a motion to reconsider would not be in order. I move the ordinance be amended to read 25 years instead of 10." His motion was seconded by Mr. Challis, and the president asked if there were any remarks on the amendment. There was complete silence until Mr. Peake called for the question. The vote was taken and Members Challis, Marshall and Stewart voted yes, while President Purinton and Messrs. Kent and Peake voted no, Mr. Horwell asking to be excused from voting.

President Purinton said: "Mr. Horwell does not wish to vote on that; are the members of council willing to excuse him?" Members Marshall and Challis said they would have to request Mr. Horwell to vote, and President Purinton remarked: "Unless there is the unanimous consent of council Mr. Horwell will have to vote."

For a few minutes one could have heard a pin drop, then President Purinton said: "Is it the desire of council to make Mr. Horwell vote on the subject?"

Mr. Peake moved Mr. Horwell be requested to vote, and that gentleman replied:

"I will have to vote on the subject or get out I suppose. Well, I will get out, I will not vote on it."

"The gentleman is not prepared to vote tonight," said Mr. Purinton.

"Cannot the ordinance remain standing as it is for two weeks from tonight?" asked Mr. Stewart. "We should give the gentleman time."

The president then explained that the amendment would delay the ordinance anyway. "The vote is a tie, and the ordinance goes over to its third reading," continued Mr. Purinton, and the subject was finished for two weeks.

Mr. Kent was excused at this point. A petition asking that a fire plug be placed in Helena was referred to the fire committee.

Mr. Stewart remarked that since the Christian church was destroyed by fire he supposed they would have no use for an electric light as they intended to locate elsewhere. He then moved the light committee and board of improvements have the power of locating the one at the Christian church and the one in Short alley. Mr. Peake wanted to know where Jethro came in, as they had never had any light down there. He wanted the board of improvements to "look this up." Mr. Marshall suggested that Mr. Stewart confined himself to the one light at the Christian church as the railroad company could be compelled to place a light on Second street.

Mr. Stewart remarked that there was a question as to whether the railroad company could be made to put a light on Second street as the light on the Broadway crossing illuminated the one at Second street. President Purinton thought it would be wise to act on the suggestion of Mr. Marshall, and said: "If Mr. Stewart will read the state law he will see the railroad company have to place a light at every crossing as soon as notified. It is only the good humor of council that has permitted the crossings to be dark thus far." The motion of Mr. Stewart was passed.

The reports were read. Mayor Gilbert reported $64.35 collected during the month, while the street commissioner said his work had been of a general nature. The treasurer's report was received and filed, and Chief Morley reported eight fires and eight patrol calls. Engineer George reported the amount of work completed on the Eighth street culvert at $3,012, of which amount the contractors had been paid $2,400. They now need money, and Mr. Marshall moved they be granted $500. Mr. Peake wanted council to view it before any money was paid, and said: "The understanding was they were to build the culvert the same as the old, and part of the old culvert which was never taken out. It doesn't come into the plans and specifications." Engineer George replied that it was built as had been agreed upon according to the specifications.

All members voted for the motion except Mr. Peake. "You can just save $500. I protest. The work isn't right." "All right," replied President Purinton.

The McDole bill was referred to the solicitor, and a claim of the water works for $55 was placed on the payroll. The board of health bills, among which is the claim of a local paper for $57.90, were trotted out. Mr. Marshall moved the bill be referred to the solicitor. Mr. Challis thought it had better go on the payroll as it was a dangerous proceeding to turn down board of health bills. Mr. Marshall then suggested that it be referred to the board for correction, stating that one member of the board had told him they had erred when they passed it. President Purinton explained that the bill had been turned down repeatedly by former boards, but the new board had passed it not knowing the exact facts in the case. In regard to the $20 item the president said he knew a number of members who were willing to stand their share of it. The bill was then referred back for investigation as to its legal standing, and if it is legal the city will have to pay it.

Solicitor Grosshans called attention to the Martin Leatherow judgment for $500, and it was placed on the payroll. President Purinton wanted to know what fund it will be paid from, and suggested it come from the judgment fund. Mr. Marshall thought council was in need of a new fund, and Mr. Stewart said to pay it out of the East End fire fund. It will be paid out of the general fund. The pay ordinance passed.

Police committee reported favorably in the appointment of William Henry Moore as an officer, and he was confirmed by a unanimous vote. Robert Hall was awarded the contract for the fitting of the clerk's office with file boxes at a cost of $42.65.

The resignation, to take effect immediately, of William Kent, as a member from the Second ward, was read by the clerk. Mr. Horwell moved it be received, and Mr. Challis seconded.

"Do you mean receive or accept?" asked President Purinton.

It was explained that the motion meant accept, and Mr. Marshall said: "I hate to see that motion put. I will amend it by laying it on the table for two weeks. I hate to see Mr. Kent resign."

"I don't think it proper to accept the resignation tonight, and think it would be wise to lay it over two weeks," remarked President Purinton. The motion was withdrawn, and the resignation went over two weeks.

Mayor Gilbert was granted a few days leave of absence, and President Purinton appointed the street committee to look up the Eighth street culvert matter, as he had heard the story from outside sources.

The board of health were recommended to view Minerva and Oak streets and Riverview and Bradshaw avenues, and council adjourned.

"I have not time to attend to the duties of the office and it costs too much money. I have been intending to resign for five months but only waited until it would take effect within the 60 day limitation in order to save the city the expense of holding a special election. The Southside ordinance had nothing to do with it, but I will say if the 25 year franchise had come up last night for the last time I would have resigned rather than vote against the wishes of my constituents. I will not appear in council again, even if my resignation was not accepted last night."

Mr. Horwell's only explanation for his action was that "it came too sudden."

MORE CHARITY, LESS ADVICE.
Would Be Appreciated by the Township Trustees.

"The trustees are burdened with advice which they would gladly exchange for something to benefit the poor," said one of the gentlemen today. "There are any number of people in the city who seem to believe that all we need is advice, and, while they are not slow in giving us a vast deal of that, they never think of bringing around an old suit of clothes or a pair of shoes to help lift the burden on the taxpayers, and make some poor, shivering mortal happy. We appreciate substantial contributions, and are very thankful for those we have received."

MR. KENT WALKED OUT

Then His Resignation Was Presented to Council.

MR. HORWELL REFUSED TO VOTE

And the Street Railway Franchise Went Over For Two Weeks—A Change In the Curfew Ordinance—Some Talk About Light—What Council Did.

The meeting of council held last evening was an unusually short session, but several sensations were sprung before it closed.

When President Purinton called the body to order, every member but Mr. Ashbaugh was in his place. The clerk read the minutes, and Mr. Peake took the floor.

"I would like to know if that light in Sunnyside was changed," he said. "If it was the light committee never met to do anything with it. Mr. Ashbaugh was away from the city, and I was not present. I object to the minutes."

Mr. Marshall said he did not think this was the proper time to discuss the matter, and President Purinton explained that the objection was made because only one member of the light committee signed the report. The minutes were changed to read "Mr. Stewart of the light committee," and council proceeded to business.

The curfew ordinance was read, and Mr. Stewart offered as an amendment that for the first offense the children be taken to their homes by the officers instead of to the office of the mayor or the city jail. Mr. Marshall moved the ordinance be referred to the ordinance committee in order that a satisfactory arrangement could be had before the next meeting. This was carried, and all members who have amendments to offer were ordered to submit them to the committee within a week. Ordinances fixing grade lines on Riverview avenue and Oak street were read for the third time and passed.

The street railway ordinance came next, and Mr. Peake moved it be laid over for two weeks. President Purinton instructed the clerk to read the title of the ordinance. Mr. Marshall said: "In regard to a 25 year franchise a motion to reconsider would not be in order. I move the ordinance be amended to read 25 years instead of 10." His motion was seconded by Mr. Challis, and the president asked if there were any remarks on the amendment. There was complete silence until Mr. Peake called for the question. The vote was taken and Members Challis, Marshall and Stewart voted yes, while President Purinton and Messrs. Kent and Peake voted no, Mr. Horwell asking to be excused from voting.

President Purinton said: "Mr. Horwell does not wish to vote on that; are the members of council willing to excuse him?" Members Marshall and Challis said they would have to request Mr. Horwell to vote, and President Purinton remarked: "Unless there is the unanimous consent of council Mr. Horwell will have to vote."

For a few minutes one could have heard a pin drop, then President Purinton said: "Is it the desire of council to make Mr. Horwell vote on the subject?"

Mr. Peake moved Mr. Horwell be requested to vote, and that gentleman replied:

"I will have to vote on the subject or get out I suppose. Well, I will get out. I will not vote on it."

"The gentleman is not prepared to vote tonight," said Mr. Purinton.

"Cannot the ordinance remain standing as it is for two weeks from tonight?" asked Mr. Stewart. "We should give the gentleman time."

The president then explained that the amendment would delay the ordinance anyway. "The vote is a tie, and the ordinance goes over to its third reading," continued Mr. Purinton, and the subject was finished for two weeks.

Mr. Kent was excused at this point. A petition asking that a fire plug be placed in Helena was referred to the fire committee.

Mr. Stewart remarked that since the Christian church was destroyed by fire he supposed they would have no use for an electric light as they intended to locate elsewhere. He then moved the light committee and board of improvements have the power of locating the one at the Christian church and the one in Short alley. Mr. Peake wanted to know where Jethro came in, as they had never had any light down there. He wanted the board of improvements to "look this up." Mr. Marshall suggested that Mr. Stewart confined himself to the one light at the Christian church as the railroad company could be compelled to place a light on Second street.

Mr. Stewart remarked that there was a question as to whether the railroad company could be made to put a light on Second street as the light on the Broadway crossing illuminated the one at Second street. President Purinton thought it would be wise to act on the suggestion of Mr. Marshall, and said: "If Mr. Stewart will read the state law he will see the railroad company have to place a light at every crossing as soon as notified. It is only the good humor of council that has permitted the crossings to be dark thus far." The motion of Mr. Stewart was passed.

The reports were read. Mayor Gilbert reported $64.35 collected during the month, while the street commissioner said his work had been of a general nature. The treasurer's report was received and filed, and Chief Morley reported eight fires and eight patrol calls. Engineer George reported the amount of work completed on the Eighth street culvert at $3,012, of which amount the contractors had been paid $2,400. They now need money, and Mr. Marshall moved they be granted $500. Mr. Peake wanted council to view it before any money was paid, and said: "The understanding was they were to build the culvert the same as the old, and part of the old culvert which was never taken out. It doesn't come into the plans and specifications." Engineer George replied that it was built as had been agreed upon according to the specifications.

All members voted for the motion except Mr. Peake. "You can just save $500. I protest. The work isn't right." "All right," replied President Purinton.

The McDole bill was referred to the solicitor, and a claim of the water works for $55 was placed on the payroll. The board of health bills, among which is the claim of a local paper for $57.90, were trotted out. Mr. Marshall moved the bill be referred to the solicitor. Mr. Challis thought it had better go on the payroll as it was a dangerous proceeding to turn down board of health bills. Mr. Marshall then suggested that it be referred to the board for correction, stating that one member of the board had told him they had erred when they passed it. President Purinton explained that the bill had been turned down repeatedly by former boards, but the new board had passed it not knowing the exact facts in the case. He regarded the $20 item the president said he knew a number of members who were willing to stand their share of it. The bill was then referred back for investigation as to its legal standing, and if it is legal the city will have to pay it.

Solicitor Grosshans called attention to the Martin Leatherow judgment for $500, and it was placed on the payroll. President Purinton wanted to know what fund it will be paid from, and suggested it come from the judgment fund. Mr. Marshall thought council was in need of a new fund, and Mr. Stewart said to pay it out of the East End fire fund. It will be paid out of the general fund. The pay ordinance passed.

Police committee reported favorably in the appointment of William Henry Moore as an officer, and he was confirmed by a unanimous vote. Robert Hall was awarded the contract for the fitting of the clerk's office with file boxes at a cost of $12.65.

The resignation, to take effect immediately, of William Kent, as a member from the Second ward, was read by the clerk. Mr. Horwell moved it be received, and Mr. Challis seconded.

"Do you mean receive or accept?" asked President Purinton.

It was explained that the motion meant accept, and Mr. Marshall said: "I hate to see that motion put. I will amend it by laying it on the table for two weeks. I hate to see Mr. Kent resign." "I don't think it proper to accept the resignation tonight, and think it would be wise to lay it over two weeks," remarked President Purinton. The motion was withdrawn, and the resignation went over two weeks.

Mayor Gilbert was granted a few days leave of absence, and President Purinton appointed the street committee to look up the Eighth street culvert matter, as he had heard the story from outside sources.

The board of health were recommended to view Minerva and Oak streets and Riverview and Bradshaw avenues, and council adjourned.

ORGANIZING THE TAILORS.
A Meeting Will Be Held to Form a Union.

E. S. Christophersen, general organizer of the Journeymen Tailors union of America, is in the city for the purpose of forming an organization. All members of the craft will meet tonight at Red Men's hall where the union will be formed. The tailors of the city are a unit in favor of the plan, and is expected that all will join. Wellsville will be taken into the organization.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 10.

THE municipal election is not far away. Have you decided on a good man in your ward for council?

THERE are people who expect the Zanesville meeting will develop something, but these same people have been mistaken before.

Ir President Cleveland takes no worse timber than General Alger into his cabinet the country will never have cause for complaint.

THE discordant Democracy of Sten-berville had a meeting last night in Philharmonic hall. Talk about Satan masquerading in the liveliest of heaven!

THE county politician was very much in evidence in this city yesterday, and the child-like innocence each displayed when he glanced at his opponent was a sight to make the gods smile sweetly.

Down in Tennessee the legislature has defeated a resolution prohibiting its members from accepting passes from railroad companies. They don't propose to pay while they can ride for nothing.

If the dispatches from Washington are to be believed Major McKinley will appoint none but Ohio men to good positions, but it is safe to say there are some men even in East Liverpool who do not believe those dispatches.

The best argument favoring the selection of United States senator by the people can be found in some of the men chosen by state legislatures during the past few weeks. In the classic language of Mr. Bryan they are "daisies."

The drawing in England of plans for American battleships is but another instance of the great love President Cleveland and his official friends has for this country. England could do it so much better, and the men-of-war would be so much better designed, you know.

Those foes of prosperity, who know no more pleasant amusement than the painting of poverty in the most distressing of situations, would do the country a great kindness if they but decided on a vacation for a few years. Their dismal croaking is enough to make the most prosperous feel poor.

The Salem Herald takes upon itself to announce the retirement of Judge J. R. Johnson from public life. This seems unkind, for we have heard in this part of the world that the judge would still like to serve the old Eighteenth in Washington when a better place in Washington was found for Hon. R. W. Taylor.

WHILE penologists and theorists are wasting a strange amount of energy in discussing strange schemes for the employment of New York's convicts, many a poor fellow is gazing blankly at his prison wall knowing that a few more days and his mind will be a blot. While there is no denying the justice of the claims made by union workmen there certainly should be a solution for the terrible puzzle. Without it time will not be long until insane asylums will be synonymous with penitentiaries.

CRIMINAL LIBEL.

The Commercial Gazette, Pittsburg, has been found guilty of criminal libel, exactly along the line of the transgression of the law as exemplified in the attack made upon the manager of the News Review by the editors of the lower region sheet and Weekly Tribune, particularly the latter, who revealed in malice and untruth, when the slightest inquiry would have shown him his false position. Developments later.

GOOD MEN FOR COUNCIL.

There will be an unusual number of vacancies in council, and it is necessary that they be filled with men who can be trusted to do their duty. There have been times when East Liverpool was at the mercy of office holders devoid of experience and unworthy from every standpoint to occupy official position. The News Review believes that such men should not receive support at the polls even though they should so far forget themselves as to announce their candidacy. Seats in council are only for those conservative men who will consider public business as if it were their own, and will not forget that economy in the expenditure of the city's moneys is as necessary as in the use of their own funds.

Animal Kindergarten.

It will be noticed that all creatures which have large families, whether beasts or birds, have less trouble in rearing them than those which have only one or two young. Little pigs are weeks ahead of calves in intelligence, and the young partridge, with its dozen brothers and sisters, is far more teachable than the young eagle. There seems no doubt that the latter is taught to fly by its parents. A correspondent informs the writer that he has watched the old birds so engaged and the young eagles reluctantly following them to a height.

Specialized education in animals begins late. The beaver kitten's training does not begin until the autumn of the year in which it was born. The old beavers, which have moved up tributary streams into the woods, or roamed to the larger lakes during summer, then return to inspect their dam and repair it for the winter. They then cut down a few trees, and, dividing them into logs, roll them or tow them to the dam. The kittens meantime are put on to what in a workshop would be called a "soft job." They cut all the small branches and twigs into lengths and do their share of light transport service.

In the mud patting and repairing of the dam the beaver kittens take their share, but there is little doubt that they do so because their elders are so engaged. It is a kindergarten of the best kind, because mud patting and stick cutting are a great joy and solace to old beavers as well as young ones, and so instruction, pleasure and business are all combined.

Young otters, and probably also young water rats, have to be taught to go into the water. According to the observations of Mr. Hart, the late head keeper at the zoo, the young otters born there did not enter the water for weeks, and even then their mother had to "milk" them and fetch them out when she thought they had had enough of it. They swim naturally when once in the water, and this seems true of all animals. —London Spectator.

Elizabeth M. Fields.

Chivalrous Stuart Phelps, in her book, "Chapters from a Life," pays the following tribute to James T. Fields:

"Mr. Fields was a man of marked chivalry of nature, and, at a time when it was not fashionable to help the movements for the elevation of women, his sympathy was distinct, fearless and faithful. In a few instances, we know, and he knew, that this fact deprived him of the possession of certain public honors which would otherwise have been offered to him.

"He advocated the political advancement of our sex, coeducation and kindred movements without any of that apologetic murmur so common among the half hearted or the timid. His fastidious and cultivated literary taste was sensitive to the position of women in letters. He was incapable of that literary snobbishness which undervalues a woman's work because it is a woman's. A certain publishing enterprise which threatened to treat of eminent men came to his notice. He quickly said: 'The time has gone by for that! Men and women! Men and women!'

Growth of English.

The growth of the English language during the present century has been without parallel in the history of any tongue. The commercial associations of the English and American people with all the nations of the earth have brought contributions from every clime to enrich our mother tongue, and the result is that there are words in common use in the English language from every known language on the face of the earth.

The red carnation is regarded in Spain as an emblem of despair. There is a tradition in Andalusia that the flower sprang from the blood of the Virgin Mary.

A Note of Warning.

A number of the remedies commonly used for throat trouble have but little merit. The indiscriminate and careless use of some of them is attended with positive danger.

As a prominent example, Chlorate of Potash probably does a great deal more harm than good. Many people, when suffering from sore throat and like troubles, carry crystals or tablets of Chlorate of Potash in their pockets, and eat them almost like candy. Chlorate of Potash has a decided direct action on the kidneys and its unwise use in frequent and large doses irritates these organs and leads to really serious results, especially so in children.

Some may think this is sounding a false and needless alarm but as a single proof we wish to state that we have before us the November, 1894, copy of the Indiana Medical Journal, wherein are reported two deaths clearly due directly to this habit of using Chlorate of Potash with no regard to its powerful properties.

In the past there may have been some excuse for people trifling with dangerous and powerful drugs in the home treatment of Sore Throat, Sore Mouth, Croup and Quinsy, as there was a lack of a valuable cure for these diseases. A remedy has recently been placed on sale specially for this class of troubles and it is meeting with a well merited success, as every prudent mother wants such a remedy at hand. Its name is Tonsiline. It never fails. Your dealer has it in 25 and 50 cent bottles.

OBSELETE OLD TREATY.

Morgan Wants Clayton-Bulwer Agreement Abrogated.

AMENDMENTS TO ARBITRATION.

A Number Proposed by the Senators.

Bacon Afloat Southern News Might Figure—They Wonder How Newspapers Secure Secret Information.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The most important developments concerning the consideration of the arbitration treaty by the senate in executive sessions were the offering of the amendment by Senator Morgan of Alabama, providing for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty and the speech by the same senator in favor of this proposition. Senator Morgan declared that the conditions which called forth the Clayton-Bulwer treaty had long passed away. It was no longer binding on either nation, nor was it of any use or value to this nation, though it might be of great importance to Great Britain in case the Nicaragua canal was constructed. With the treaty now under consideration, he said that no doubt the question of the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty in effect would have to be submitted to arbitration.

While the old treaty was obsolete and disregarded yet it was still used as a menace and bugaboo to the United States whenever the construction of the Nicaragua canal was advocated. Great Britain, declared Senator Morgan, had violated the treaty and abrogated it by occupying a portion of the territory of Honduras. Great Britain would use the treaty of arbitration to her advantage and the Clayton-Bulwer treaty would be used in the same way unless it was declared to be void. There was no better occasion for abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer treaty than by so providing in the arbitration treaty, said Mr. Morgan.

Another important amendment was offered by Senator Bacon of Georgia. It provides for a modification of article 8, so as to relieve the southern states from any obligation that might arise under the bonds issued in the reconstruction of the bonds. The amendment was the result of a conference among the southern senators, who concluded that the article as it now stands might render it possible to make these bonds, when held by subjects of Great Britain, the object of arbitration.

When Senator Morgan renewed his remarks last night on the treaty before the senate should be amended so as to except in definite terms the Nicaragua canal and everything relating to that phase of the treaty, and read from a number of reports bearing on the subject, showing the interest of the United States in that part of the continent, which the senator declared was more vital than any treaty that could be made with Great Britain.

A number of amendments have been prepared which will be offered in the course of the debate. Among them is one directing that all subjects of arbitration must first be submitted to the president and the senate before being sent to the tribunal provided for in the treaty. Another excepts from matters subject to the treaty, the Alaskan boundary dispute, also any controversy as to the boundary line in the Straits of Foca, which separate Vancouver island from Washington state.

Senator Teller stated that he wanted it understood that the silver men were not opposing the treaty as silver men, and that no opposition was being made to it because it effected the silver interests. There were other and sufficient grounds upon which to base their objections.

The suggestion raised by Senator Daniel in the committee on foreign relations, as to whether the difference between the price of silver and gold coin (in case of the country) should be made the subject of arbitration did not receive much consideration, nor did it attract any particular notice.

The first two hours were given to a discussion of the full reports of the secret session that were printed in the papers, there being much wonder as to how the newspapers got hold of it.

AGREED TO IMMIGRATION BILL.

The House Also Passed Bills Over the President's Veto.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The house has agreed to the final conference report on the immigration bill by an overwhelming majority (217 to 33) and passed two more pension bills over the president's veto.

The modifications of the immigration bill contained in the conference report by which an intending immigrant was required to be able to read and write "the English or another language," and which permitted the illiterate wife and minor children to accompany an eligible immigrant removed the main opposition to the bill. Mr. Mahoney (Rep., N. Y.), Maguire (Dem., Cal.) and Keifer (Rep., Minn.) opposed the whole theory of the bill on general principles. Mr. Barthol (Rep., Mo.) and Mr. McCall (Rep., Mass.) both spoke in favor of the bill as modified.

The beneficiaries of the pension bills passed over the veto were both of the class known as "remarried widows." Mr. Cleveland has disapproved a number of these bills, but he has also allowed several to become laws without his signature.

3400 a Ton For Armor.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The senate committee on naval affairs will recommend that the secretary of the navy shall not be authorized to pay more than $400 per ton for armor and that an appropriation of $1,500,000 be made to be used in the establishment of a plant in case the manufacturers refuse to accept the price.

Rev. Dr. Hall Honored.

New York, Feb. 10.—The Rev. Dr. Charles C. Dr. Thomas Hastings and the Rev. Dr. George Lewis Prentiss.

ATTACKS HIS PARTY'S POLICY.

A Republican Congressman Attacks the Bimetallite Conference Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The interest in congress in the question of an international monetary conference was shown by the presence in the house committee on coinage of many members to listen to the discussion of the resolutions before the committee. Several members of the committee on banking and currency took part in the debate.

The first speaker was Representative Hill, a Connecticut Republican, who spoke from a political standpoint, bitterly denouncing the senate for attempting to lay a trap to ensnare the Republican party. It was an attempt, he said, to bring about the things which the Republican party voted down at the last election, the free coinage of silver and a double standard of value. Referring to Senator Chandler, he said the proposition was thrust upon the incoming president by a senator who had bitterly and violently opposed his nomination, and that that senator had been sustained and seconded by the chairman of the National Democratic committee.

Representative Brewster (Rep. N. Y.) remarked that the bill was a trap by the enemy to put the next president in a hole.

Representative Fairchild (Rep. N. Y.) said that he understood the senate bill had been drafted by Senator Wolcott after conference with Mr. McKinley.

"Let Mr. McKinley give his opinion in the inaugural message," said Mr. Brewster.

GOING AROUND THE WORLD.

The Pleasant Trip Cleveland Will Take After March 4.

TOLEDO, Feb. 10.—A passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific, now in this city, is authority for the statement that President Cleveland will take a trip around the world immediately after the inauguration of his successor.

The president and his party will go to the coast over the Canadian Pacific road, and Division Passenger Agent Sheehy of that line will conduct the party in person.

It is the desire of the president to start as soon as possible after the inauguration of President-elect McKinley. He desires to avoid public functions as much as possible, and intends to make the circuit of the globe as a private citizen.

Private Secretary Thurber and several members of President Cleveland's cabinet are expected to accompany his children. Mrs. Cleveland and the children may accompany the party; that matter has not been fully decided yet.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Private Secretary Thurber refused officially to confirm or deny the statement. He preferred, he said, to await the publication of the story before making any announcement regarding it.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 10

THE municipal election is not far away. Have you decided on a good man in your ward for council?

THERE are people who expect the Zanesville meeting will develop something,

but these same people have been mistaken before.

Ir President Cleveland takes no worse timber than General Alger into his cabinet the country will never have cause for complaint.

THE discordant Democracy of Stenbenville had a meeting last night in Philharmonic hall. Talk about Satan masquerading in the liver of heaven!

The county politician was very much in evidence in this city yesterday, and the child-like innocence each displayed

when he glanced at his opponent was a sight to make the gods smile sweetly.

Down in Tennessee the legislature has defeated a resolution prohibiting its members from accepting passes from railroad companies. They don't propose to pay while they can ride for nothing.

If the dispatches from Washington are to be believed Major McKinley will appoint none but Ohio men to good positions, but it is safe to say there are some men even in East Liverpool who do not believe those dispatches.

THE best argument favoring the selection of United States senator by the people can be found in some of the men chosen by state legislatures during the past few weeks. In the classic language of Mr. Bryan they are "daisies."

THE drawing in England of plans for American battleships is but another instance of the great love President

Cleveland and his official friends has for this country. England could do it so much better, and the men-of-war would be so much better designed, you know.

THOSE foes of prosperity, who know no more pleasant amusement than the painting of poverty in the most dis-treasing of situations, would do this country a great kindness if they but decided on a vacation for a few years.

Their dismal croaking is enough to make the most prosperous feel poor.

THE Salem Herald takes upon itself to announce the retirement of Judge J. R.

Johnson from public life. This seems unkind, for we have heard in this part of the world that the judge would still like to serve the old Eighteenth in Washington when a better place has been found for Hon. R. W. Taylor.

THE distance between Cape Town,

South Africa, and Washington is 6,684 miles.

It is stated by Brewer that Pope Hormas, in 593, was the first to wear a cap or tiara of state.

A Note of Warning.

A number of the remedies commonly used for throat trouble have but little merit. The indiscriminate and careless use of some of them is attended with positive danger.

As a prominent example, Chlorate of Potash probably does a great deal more harm than good. Many people, when suffering from sore throat and like troubles, carry crystals or tablets of Chlorate of Potash in their pockets, and eat them almost like candy. Chlorate of Potash has a decided direct action on the kidneys and its unwise use in frequent and large doses irritates these organs and leads to really serious results, especially so in children.

Some may think this is sounding a false and needless alarm, but as a single proof

we wish to state that we have before us

the November, 1894, copy of the Indiana

Medical Journal, wherein are reported two deaths clearly due directly to the habit of using Chlorate of Potash with no regard to its powerful properties.

In the past there may have been some excuse for people trifling with dangerous and powerful drugs in the home treatment of Sore Throat, Sore Mouth, Croup

and Quinsy, as there was a lack of a valuable cure for these diseases. A remedy has recently been placed on sale specially for this class of troubles and it is meeting with a well merited success, as every prudent mother wants such a remedy at hand. Its name is Tonsiline. It never fails. Your dealer has it in 25 and 50 cent bottles.

GOOD MEN FOR COUNCIL.

There has been an unusual number of vacancies in council, and it is necessary that they be filled with men who can be trusted to do their duty. There have been times when East Liverpool was at the mercy of office holders devoid of ex-

ABSOLUTE OLD TREATY.

A Republican Congressman Attacks the

Washington, Feb. 10.—The interest in congress in the question of an international monetary conference was shown by the presence in the house committee on coinage of many members to listen to the discussion of the resolutions before the committee. Several members of the committee on banking and currency took part in the debate.

The first speaker was Representative

Hill, a Connecticut Republican, who spoke from a political standpoint, bitterly denouncing the senate for attempting to lay a trap to ensnare the Republican party. It was an attempt, he said, to bring about the things which the Republican party voted down at the last election, the free coinage of silver and a double standard of value.

Referring to Senator Chandler, he said the proposition was thrust upon the incoming president by a senator who had bitterly and violently opposed his nomination, and that that senator had been sustained and seconded by the chairman of the National Democratic committee.

Representative Brewster (Rep. N. Y.)

remarked that the bill was a trap by the enemy to put the next president in a hole.

Representative Fairchild (Rep. N. Y.)

said that he understood the senate bill had been drafted by Senator Wolcott

after conference with Mr. McKinley.

"Let Mr. McKinley give his opinion in the inaugural message," said Mr.

Brewster.

GOING AROUND THE WORLD.

The Pleasant Trip Cleveland Will Take

After March 4.

TOLEDO, Feb. 10.—A passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific, now in this city, is authority for the statement that President Cleveland will take a trip around the world immediately after the inauguration of his successor.

The president and his party will go to the coast over the Canadian Pacific road, and Division Passenger Agent

Sheehy of that line will conduct the party in person.

It is the desire of the president to start as soon as possible after the inauguration of President-elect McKinley.

He desires to avoid public functions as much as possible, and intends to make the circuit of the globe as a private citizen.

Private Secretary Thurber and several members of President Cleveland's cabinet are expected to accompany his excellency. Mrs. Cleveland and the children may accompany the party;

that matter has not been fully decided yet.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Private

Secretary Thurber refused officially to confirm or deny the statement that the president, he said, to await the publication of the story before making any anouncement regarding it.

Awful Suffering From the Terrible Famine.

STARVING, LIVING SKELETONS.

Terrible Sights Witnessed by a Correspondent—The Present Famine the Worst of the Century—Cholera Has Broken Out in One Section.

[Copyrighted.]

JUBHILPOOR, Feb. 10.—On his way to this city the special representative of the Associated Press, who is examining into the famine situation in India, visited the poorhouses of Bilaspur and Katni. The inmates were found to be in a deplorable condition, the buildings were overcrowded and medical attendance was lacking. A man outside one of them was dead and another was dying. A girl of 5 years of age weighed only ten pounds and several adults were under 50 pounds in weight. The skin in all cases was drawn over the face, showing the outline of the skulls and the limbs and joints had the appearance of those of articulated skeletons. There is an immense migration to the Assam tea gardens, 1,600 persons going there weekly, deserting their wives and families.

It is estimated that the present famine is the greatest of the century. The famine belt is 1,300 miles long and 400 miles wide. This is apart from the scattered districts.

In all the rice districts there is no chance of a food supply until September. The government will thus be forced to support nearly all the population for six months and many of them for eight months. Whole villages are deserted.

Out of the 750,000 inhabitants of Jubhailpoor, about 120,000 are now receiving relief. By the month of May this number will be doubled.

The correspondent has just heard that the Kural poorhouses in the western part of the district have been burned. Twenty-five persons perished. Cholera is reported to have broken out in the Mandad district relief works.

DEMANDS MADE FOR WOOL.

The Growers Meet and Adopt a Tariff Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The National Woolgrowers' association has met here with 36 members present, representing practically all of the wool-growing states and territories. A resolution was adopted calling on congress for such a protective tariff on merino wool as will give the growers east of the Missouri river 20 cents per pound, farm value, for unwashed merino and 25 cents, farm value, for washed. For sections west of the Missouri river 16 cents is demanded, farm value, for unwashed.

A committee of seven was appointed, with President Lawrence as chairman, to confer with representatives of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, and with representatives of the Manufacturers' club of Philadelphia, with a view to an agreement as to the pending wool and woolen tariff schedule, with a reservation, however, to the effect that the growers would not agree to any proposition not in full accord with their views.

A TARIFF COMMISSION.

McKinley Favors It as Part of a New Cabinet Department.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Ferdinand Peck, president of the newly organized National Business Men's league, and Franklin H. Head have returned from the east, where they were in conference with senators and representatives at Washington. On their way back from the capital they stopped at President-elect McKinley's home.

According to assurances conveyed to President Peck and Mr. Head there will be important special legislation at the next regular session of congress. A department to be known as the "department of commerce and industry" will be created if the plans of the association, supported by the promise of hearty co-operation by the president-elect, mature. President-elect McKinley suggested he would be in favor of a tariff commission which should be auxiliary to the department of commerce and industry, to which might be delegated all tariff issues and recommendations.

YOUNG TURKS MAY REBEL.

Russia Makes a Move to Prevent an Outbreak.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 10.—Anxiety is felt here at the danger of outbreak on the part of the young Turks.

The officials of the embassies have received copies of a manifesto from the young Turk party, declaring that they had decided to have recourse to force.

Numbers of fly sheets, denouncing the present government, have been found on the streets of Stamboul.

The Russian embassy has written to the Porte, pointing out the necessity of preventing an outbreak: "Which might imperil the integrity of Turkey."

This action on the part of the Russian embassy has impressed diplomatic circles, especially in view of the naval preparations at Odessa.

$90,000 WILL REACH THE POOR.

Rev. Dr. Talmage Approves of the Bradley-Martin Bill.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 10.—The Rev. Dr. T. DeWitt Talmage, when asked for an expression on the Bradley-Martin bill while here, said:

"My general theory is that it is well to give to the poor and needy. There are two ways to do it—one directly and the other scattering the wealth."

"I think that when an entertainment that will scatter $100,000 is given, the man who cannot see that $90,000 of it will reach the poor, needs a new pair of spectacles. I am in favor of these great entertainments. I am not talking now from a moral standpoint."

Still they come. Receiving new goods every day. Of those already in we call your attention to a few good things.

Dress Gingham.

We won't say what these are worth; will let you judge that, but we know we brought them at a low price and are going to give you the benefit of it. We offer them at 7c a yard. Thirty pieces of them, all new, in neat checks and stripes, in dark, medium and light colors, and just the thing for children's dresses, aprons, etc.

Dress Goods.

In checks, mixed colors, and brocades, some of them all wool, some part wool, good width, and styles as good as higher priced goods, at one price, 25c. About 20 pieces of these, and you will be surprised at what a very few dollars will buy from this line.

Shirtings.

In three prices, 8c, 10c and 12c. The 8c ones are the best values we have offered at that price, and we can recommend for their washing and wearing qualities. The 10c ones are finer qualities and are the same patterns we have formerly sold at more money. If in need of anything of this kind we feel sure we have what you want.

NEW DRESS SKIRTS.

Received them Saturday. In black, light and dark checks, and plain colors. Correct styles for spring, and cheaper than you can turnish the goods and make them. Prices from $2.00 to $5.00. Will pay you to look this up if interested in skirt buying.

in the right light. Think it over carefully. Which is worse—a little cure and attention given to the eyes now—or to trouble all the rest of your life. Don't forget that all large things grow from small things. Don't forget that a little smarting, or aching, or pain means something—are the seeds from which blindness grows. It costs nothing to be sure your eyes are in a healthy condition. Why not be sure?

HORRORS IN INDIA.

Awful Suffering From the Terrible Famine.

STARVING, LIVING SKELETONS.

Plausible Sight Witnessed by a Correspondent—The Present Famine the Worst of the Century—Cholera Has Broken Out in One Section.

[Copyrighted.]

JERSEY, Feb. 10.—On his way to this city the special representative of the Associated Press, who is examining into the famine situation in India, visited the poorhouses of Bilaspur and Kalmi. The inmates were found to be in a deplorable condition, the buildings were overcrowded and medical attendance was lacking. A man outside one of them was dead and another was dying. A girl of 5 years of age weighed only ten pounds and several adults were under 50 pounds in weight. The skin in all cases was drawn over the face, showing the outline of the skulls and the limbs and joints had the appearance of those of articulated skeletons. There is an immense migration to the Assam tea gardens, 1,600 persons going there weekly, deserting their wives and families.

It is estimated that the present famine is the greatest of the century. The famine belt is 1,300 miles long and 400 miles wide. This is apart from the scattered districts.

In all the rice districts there is no chance of a food supply until September. The government will thus be forced to support nearly all the population for six months and many of them for eight months. Whole villages are deserted.

Out of the 750,000 inhabitants of Jabalpur, about 120,000 are now receiving relief. By the month of May this number will be doubled.

The correspondent has just heard that the Kurali poorhouses in the western part of the district have been burned. Twenty-five persons perished. Cholera is reported to have broken out in the Mandaid district relief works.

DEMANDS MADE FOR WOOL.

The Growers Meet and Adopt a Tariff Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The National Woolgrowers' association has met here with 36 members present, representing practically all of the wool-growing states and territories. A resolution was adopted calling on congress for such a protective tariff on merino wool as will give the growers east of the Missouri river 30 cents per pound, farm value, for unwashed merino and 25 cents, farm value, for washed. For sections west of the Missouri river 16 cents is demanded, farm value, for unwashed.

A committee of seven was appointed, with President Lawrence as chairman, to confer with representatives of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers and with representatives of the Manufacturers' club of Philadelphia, with a view to an agreement as to the pending wool and woolen tariff schedule, with a reservation, however, to the effect that the growers would not agree to any proposition not in full accord with their views.

A TARIFF COMMISSION.

McKinley Favors It as Part of a New Cabinet Department.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Ferdinand Peck, president of the newly organized National Business Men's league, and Franklin H. Head have returned from the east, where they were in conference with senators and representatives at Washington. On their way back from the capital they stopped at President-elect McKinley's home.

According to assurances conveyed to President Peck and Mr. Head there will be important special legislation at the next regular session of congress. A department of commerce and industry will be created if the plans of the association, supported by the promise of hearty cooperation by the president-elect, mature. President-elect McKinley suggested he would be in favor of a tariff commission which should be auxiliary to the department of commerce and industry, to which might be delegated all tariff issues and recommendations.

YOUNG TURKS MAY REBEL.

Russia Makes a Move to Prevent an Outbreak.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 10.—Anxiety is felt here at the danger of outbreak on the part of the young Turks.

The officials of the embassies have received copies of a manifesto from the young Turk party, declaring that they had decided to have recourse to force. Numbers of fly sheets, denouncing the present government, have been found on the streets of Stamboul.

The Russian embassy has written to the Porte, pointing out the necessity of preventing an outbreak: "Which might imperil the integrity of Turkey." This action on the part of the Russian embassy has impressed diplomatic circles, especially in view of the naval preparations at Odessa.

TEST IS STILL IN THE FIGHT

He Is the Only Man Who Will Oppose Charley Smith. A Conference Last Night and the Decision Announced This Morning—No Deal They Say.

The treasurership contest has narrowed down to Charley Smith, of Columbiana, and J. R. Test, of Salem, and the candidates are hustling to get their forces in battle array before the primaries.

The announcement was made last night that A. G. MacKenzie, the Wellsville man who has been a candidate for months, had withdrawn. He was seen by the NEWS REVIEW and confirmed the report, but refused to utter a word of comment.

The political atmosphere was very much disturbed yesterday, and predictions were freely made that something would drop before tonight. It dropped. A conference was held last evening, and this morning H. J. Hildeman, of Salem, who has been in the city for several days, announced his withdrawal. He claimed no deal had been entered into, and no promises had been made. Two Salem men would have had no chance to become treasurer, he said, so one of them withdrew.

This leaves the field to Charley Smith and J. R. Test. Both are in the city looking after their fences. With only two candidates, it will be the hardest fight of the campaign.

WANTS A JUDGMENT.

John McDonald Sues Monroe Patterson in Common Pleas.

LISBON, Feb. 10.—[Special.]—A judgment for $540 against Monroe Patterson, of East Liverpool, is asked by John McDonald in an action filed in court. He claims Patterson obtained possession of an engine belonging to the plaintiff. Patterson refuses to give it up, and McDonald wants it's worth in cash.

Mrs. Alice L. Stewart, of East Liverpool, was divorced in court last evening from John Stewart. They were married in 1881, and the separation was asked on the ground of neglect and dissipation.

William Applegate, of this place, was convicted of criminal assault last night, the jury being out 20 minutes. A motion for a new trial was filed.

The Grove company, of Salem, has been sued for $5,000 damages in Stark county by Edith Kramer, of Canton, who was arrested accused of complicity in the robbing of the company's chewing gun factory.

During the six years Judge Young was on the probate bench 2,208 civil cases were passed upon, while 300 of a criminal nature were brought before him. In the former, guardianships, insolvency proceedings, appropriation of private property, and all road cases are included. One fact of interest is that while scores of these were carried to the higher court, the probate ruling was reversed in but two instances.

COLLIDED WITH A PIER.

A Towboat Brushed Against the Bridge Last Night.

The river is almost free from ice, and the packets are resuming their trips. The Hudson will pass for Pittsburgh today, and will be down soon after midnight. The excellent stage of water has brought out the coal fleet, and since last evening 12 tows passed down. Several barges were left at this point.

A towboat, while passing down about 11 o'clock last evening, brushed against a bridge pier, but no serious damage was sustained. Happily the boat was going at a slow rate when the collision occurred, or the result would have been different.

RETURN OF THOMAS E. SHEA.

The Actor Will Open a Week's Engagement Next Monday.

Although Thomas E. Shea has not played an engagement in East Liverpool for six years he is pleasantly remembered by many friends in this city who will be glad to know that Manager Norris, of the opera house, has secured Mr. Shea for a week's engagement, commencing next Monday evening. Mr. Shea will open his engagement with his latest success, the "Man-o-War's Man," in which he is said to have made the hit of his career.

A REMARKABLE SERMON.

Reverend Naylor Preached It to a Large Audience.

Evangelist Naylor delivered a remarkable sermon to a large congregation last evening. He took his stand upon a few simple facts, and then, with all the power of his splendid oratory, spread the subject before his hearers. It is said that at the close of his meetings the gentleman will deliver a lecture or two for the benefit of the church. He never leaves a church with a depleted treasury.

TAKEN TO CLEVELAND

Where Edward Falls Must Answer a Charge

PREFERRED BY A YOUNG WOMAN

He Came Here For the Benefit of His Health Two Weeks Ago, but Constable Peck Learned His Place of Residence and Followed.

Edward C. Peck, a Cleveland constable, came to the city last evening, and when he returned at midnight was accompanied by Edward Falls.

Falls came here two weeks ago, and visited at the residence of his brother, Harry Falls, in Walnut street. He was here, it was said, because his health was poor, and this was the very place for him to recuperate. When the officer arrived he went to city hall, and after locating his man placed him under arrest. He had a warrant, issued from the court of Squire John Brown, of Cleveland. In it Falls was charged by a young woman of that city with being the father of her child. He made no attempt at explanation, and was taken to Cleveland on the midnight train. It is said that there is a story of unusual interest behind the case, and it will all be brought out at the trial.

WOULD FILL THE VACANCY.

E. W. Hill Is a Candidate For Justice of the Peace.

The announcement is made that E. W. Hill, president of the McKinley club, is a candidate for justice of the peace, to fill the place made vacant by the death of George Morley. Mr. Hill has been studying law for some time, and is well qualified for the position. He expects to devote his entire time to the duties of the office and his studies. He is a well-known young man, who has resided in the city a number of years, and has always been interested in politics. His Republicanism has never been questioned.

The Plausible Lie.

We resent calumny, hypocrisy and treachery because they harm us, not because they are untrue. Take the detraction and the mischief from the untruth, and we are little offended by it. Turn it into praise, and we may be pleased with it. And yet it is not calumny and treachery that do the largest sum of mischief in the world. They are continually crushed and are felt only in being conquered. But it is the glistening and softly spoken lie, the amiable fallacy, the patriotic lie of the historian, the provident lie of the politician, the zealous lie of the partisan, the merciful lie of the friend and the careless lie of each man to himself that cast that black mystery over humanity through which we thank any man who pierces, as we would thank one who dug a well in a desert. Happy that the thirst for truth remains with us, even when we have willfully left the fountains of it.—John Ruskin.

English Administration of Jamaica.

The English administration of Jamaica is a thing to be thankful for. There are law and order, excellent roads, comfortable houses, adequate police, lawn tennis and cricket, plenty of manly, companionable English army and navy officers and a governor who is strong, able and genial. At the same time it would be folly to maintain that the island is producing a tenth part of the wealth that is latent in soil and atmosphere, or that most of the wealth that is beginning to make its appearance is due to anything so much as to the American enterprise and capital which are opening up railways and cultivating fruits. Another serious fact, though not necessarily an unwelcome one, is that the island's 4,000 square miles contain a population of 600,000 persons, 25,000 of whom are white.—Julian Hawthorne in Century.

Youthful Interrogator.

"Mother," said a thoughtful Boston child to his maternal relative.

"What is it, Waldo?"

"Is Philadelphia older than Boston, mother?"

"Of course not, my son. The first settlement was made in Charlestown in 1630, while William Penn did not arrive on the site of Philadelphia until 53 years later."

"That was always my impression, mother, but how is it that Philadelphia is mentioned in the Bible, while Boston is not?"—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Mrs. Hearst's Motive.

Mrs. Phoebe Hearst of California has given $200,000 to found a mining school in connection with the state university at Berkeley as a memorial to her husband. She gives largely to the free kindergartens, supports several college settlements and contributed $1,000 to the recent campaign for the woman suffrage amendment. She has also given $200,000 to establish a fine gymnasium for girls at the state university. She said to Miss Anthony, "I am doing all this to make girls fit to vote."

One Letter Missing.

In an advertisement of a railway company requesting the owners of unclaimed goods to remove their merchandise the letter "l" was dropped from the word "lawful" in the notice, which ended thus: "Come forward and pay the awful charges on the same."—Pittsburg Chronicle.

The Measure of the Man.

When a man says he is satisfied with his lot, you may be sure of one of two things—either he is a very enterprising and cunning specimen of humanity or he is a liar.—Up to Date.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.

It Was Provided by a St. Louis Man For His Wife's Feminine Friends.

A wealthy St. Louisian living in the vicinity of Lafayette park provided a novel form of entertainment for his wife's guests one evening, says the St. Louis Republic.

The hostess was extremely anxious to provide something original for the edification of a score of guests whom she intended to call together for an informal evening. Her husband promised to provide such novelty and took a boon companion into his confidence to that end. They had not exchanged ideas 30 consecutive seconds before they hit upon the device of converting the elegant parlors into a gambling house pro tem. A faro bank, a roulette wheel and poker and keno lay out were easily procurable, as the conferees well knew, and that part of the programme was soon settled. The friend suggested as a pretty epilogue the introduction of a pair of bulldogs, guaranteed to reduce each other to mince meat in three rounds. This rather staggered the ambitious host, but his friend is a ward politician, and with the eloquence he always keeps on draft soon convinced the other that the evening would be a failure without those bulldogs.

The evening arrived, and with it came the guests. The ladies were prettily shocked at sight of the gambling paraphernalia, but became accustomed to it in an astonishingly short time and shared in the games with becoming vim. It was when the yellow bulldogs made their unexpected entrance that the horror of the fair guests proved genuine. The beasts yelped and growled and showed other peculiar canine symptoms of "spoiling for a fight." Thereupon the ladies sought refuge on the piano and card tables and chairs, conducting their retreat as from a mouse.

Notwithstanding excited feminine protestations, the friend who had been consulted as to a novelty in entertainment unleashed the dogs. It was an exciting climax to an "original" evening. The dogs feasted for five minutes on choice bits of each other's anatomy. The ladies screamed and the friend who was consulted exulted in the success of his novelty. When he was quite convinced—and it took a considerable time to convince him—that the ladies' desire for gore had been fully gratified, he doused the dogs into a convenient tub of water and separated them.

Foiled.

Senator Wilson of Washington and his brother, Harry Wilson, look very much alike. One day in Spokane, where the two brothers live, Senator Wilson, who had just returned from his legislative duties, was stopped on the street by a man who had known him for years. "Harry," said the man, "when will your brother John be here?"

"In a day or two," said John without a smile.

"Tell him I want to see him on an important matter."

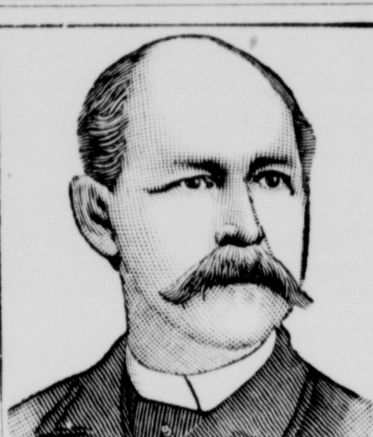

"Certainly," said John.

"And you will not forget it?"

"I'll try not," promised John, and thus another office seeker was foiled.—Washington Post.

PREFERRED BY A YOUNG WOMAN

He Came Here For the Benefit of His Health Two Weeks Ago, but Constable Peck Learned His Place of Residence and Followed.

He was here, it was said, because his health was poor, and this was the very place for him to recuperate. When the officer arrived he went to city hall, and after locating his man placed him under arrest. He had a warrant, issued from the court of Squire John Brown, of Cleveland. In it Falls was charged by a young woman of that city with being the father of her child. He made no attempt at explanation, and was taken to Cleveland on the midnight train. It is said that there is a story of unusual interest behind the case, and it will all be brought out at the trial.

WOULD FILL THE VACANCY.

E. W. Hill Is a Candidate For Justice of the Peace.

The announcement is made that E. W. Hill, president of the McKinley club, is a candidate for justice of the peace, to fill the place made vacant by the death of George Morley. Mr. Hill has been studying law for some time, and is well qualified for the position. He expects to devote his entire time to the duties of the office and his studies. He is a well-known young man, who has resided in the city a number of years, and has always been interested in politics. His Republicanism has never been questioned.

The Plausible Lie.

We resent calumny, hypocrisy and treachery because they harm us, not because they are untrue. Take the detraction and the mischief from the untruth, and we are little offended by it. Turn it into praise, and we may be pleased with it. And yet it is not calumny and treachery that do the largest sum of mischief in the world. They are continually crushed and are felt only in being conquered. But it is the glistening and softly spoken lie, the amiable fallacy, the patriotic lie of the historian, the prevalent lie of the politician, the zealous lie of the partisan, the merciful lie of the friend and the careless lie of each man to himself that cast that black mystery over humanity through which we thank any man who pierces, as we would thank one who dug a well in a desert. Happy that the thirst for truth remains with us, even when we have willfully left the fountains of it.—John Ruskin.

English Administration of Jamaica.

The English administration of Jamaica is a thing to be thankful for. There are law and order, excellent roads, comfortable houses, adequate police, lawn tennis and cricket, plenty of manly, companionable English army and navy officers and a governor who is strong, able and genial. At the same time it would be folly to maintain that the island is producing a tenth part of the wealth that is latent in soil and atmosphere, or that most of the wealth that is beginning to make its appearance is due to anything so much as to the American enterprise and capital which are opening up railways and cultivating fruits. Another serious fact, though not necessarily an unwelcome one, is that the island's 4,000 square miles contain a population of 600,000 persons, 25,000 of whom are white.—Julian Hawthorne in Century.

Youthful Interrogator.

"Mother," said a thoughtful Boston child to his maternal relative. "What is it, Waldo?" "Is Philadelphia older than Boston, mother?"

"Of course not, my son. The first settlement was made in Charlestown in 1630, while William Penn did not arrive on the site of Philadelphia until 53 years later."

"That was always my impression, mother, but how is it that Philadelphia is mentioned in the Bible, while Boston is not?"—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Mrs. Hearst's Motive.

Mrs. Phoebe Hearst of California has given $200,000 to found a mining school in connection with the state university at Berkeley as a memorial to her husband. She gives largely to the free kindergartens, supports several college settlements and contributed $1,000 to the recent campaign for the woman suffrage amendment. She has also given $200,000 to establish a fine gymnasium for girls at the state university. She said to Miss Anthony, "I am doing all this to make girls fit to vote."

One Letter Missing.

In an advertisement of a railway company requesting the owners of unclaimed goods to remove their merchandise the letter "I" was dropped from the word "lawful" in the notice, which ended thus: "Come forward and pay the lawful charges on the same."—Pittsburg Chronicle.

The Measure of the Man.

When a man says he is satisfied with his lot, you may be sure of one of two things—either he is a very enterprising and cunning specimen of humanity or he is a liar.—Up to Date.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.

It Was Provided by a St. Louis Man For His Wife's Feminine Friends.

A wealthy St. Louisian living in the vicinity of Lafayette park provided a novel form of entertainment for his wife's guests one evening, says the St. Louis Republic.

The hostess was extremely anxious to provide something original for the education of a score of guests whom she intended to call together for an informal evening. Her husband promised to provide such novelty and took a boon companion into his confidence to that end. They had not exchanged ideas 30 consecutive seconds before they hit upon the device of converting the elegant parlors into a gambling house pro tem. A faro bank, a roulette wheel and poker and keno lay outs were easily procurable, as the conferees well knew, and that part of the programme was soon settled. The friend suggested as a pretty epilogue the introduction of a pair of bulldogs, guaranteed to reduce each other to mince meat in three rounds. This rather staggered the ambitious host, but his friend is a ward politician, and with the eloquence he always keeps on draft soon convinced the other that the evening would be a failure without those bulldogs.

The evening arrived, and with it came the guests. The ladies were pretty shocked at sight of the gambling paraphernalia, but became accustomed to it in an astonishingly short time and shared in the games with becoming vim. It was when the yellow bulldogs made their unexpected entrance that the horror of the fair guests proved genuine. The beasts yelped and growled and showed their peculiar canine symptoms of "spoiling for a fight." Thereupon the ladies sought refuge on the piano and card tables and chairs, conducting their retreat as from a mouse.

Notwithstanding excited feminine protestations, the friend who had been consulted as to a novelty in entertainment unleashed the dogs. It was an exciting climax to an "original" evening. The dogs feasted for five minutes on choice bits of each other's anatomy. The ladies screamed and the friend who was consulted exulted in the success of his novelty. When he was quite convinced—and it took a considerable time to convince him—that the ladies' desire for gore had been fully gratified, he doused the dogs into a convenient tub of water and separated them.

Foiled.

Senator Wilson of Washington and his brother, Harry Wilson, look very much alike. One day in Spokane, where the two brothers live, Senator Wilson, who had just returned from his legislative duties, was stopped on the street by a man who had known him for years. "Harry," said the man, "when will your brother John be here?" "In a day or two," said John with-out a smile.

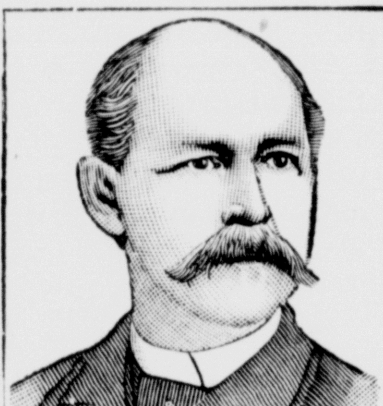

"Tell him I want to see him on an important matter."

"Certainly," said John.

"And you will not forget it?"

"I'll try not," promised John, and thus another office seeker was foiled.—Washington Post.
